His Excellency
The Prime Minister of Japan

Dear Mr. Yoshida:

It was a great pleasure to have the recent opportunity to meet again and discuss with Mr. Junichirō Murauchi, Chief of the Research Chamber of your Government, our mutual interest and problems. I sincerely hope that the conversations Mr. Murauchi had with me and members of my staff while in Washington will be of some small assistance in the important undertaking in which he is engaged.

Please be assured that I consider most important and potentially fruitful the cooperation which you, Mr. Ogata, and Mr. Murauchi have extended to my representatives in your country, and that I look forward to continuation of the excellent relationships which have been established.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

His Excellency
The Deputy Prime Minister of Japan
Tokyo, Japan

Dear Mr. Ogata:

I should like to take this opportunity to express the great pleasure I had recently in meeting in Washington Mr. Jun Murai, Chief of the Cabinet Research Chamber of the Japanese Government. The conversations Mr. Murai had with me and members of my staff were certainly most beneficial in our understanding of the mutual problems and interests we share, and it is our hope that they were of some benefit to Mr. Murai.

Admiral Overbeck has advised me of his recent conversations with you and Mr. Murai and I wish to take this opportunity to assure you that my staff stands ready to assist you in the important endeavour in which you are engaged.

Very sincerely,

Allen B. Dulles
Director
